Whether you're an avid cyclist or prefer a leisurely-paced bike ride every now and then, Amelia Island is home to enough trails and paths to give you a change of scenery each day. The island provides a number of options from rugged trails winding past century-old, moss-laden live oaks and natural waterways to smooth scenic coastal paths. If you didn't bring your own bike, rentals are available throughout the island and guided bicycle tours are offered at some locations.

Our bike trails are paths to connect parks, so enjoy both!
