

THE RIVERGUY RENTALS STORY

RIVERGUY RENTALS is headed by a normal guy: a professional real estate agent/broker and a professional property investor/manager. Over the preceding years, the agent referred his clients to other companies to meet his residential leasing and property management needs.

Unfortunately he found that, all too often, customer service was a real problem in the management industry. That led to dissatisfied and unhappy clients.

At the same time, the professional property investor was self-managing his own rentals. The headaches associated with self management were solved when he hired a property manager, or so he thought. His units would sit empty, they wouldn't be marketed, and collected rents were forwarded inconsistently.

Together, he knew there was a better way – the RIVERGUY RENTALS way. The basic proposition of our business is simple: we communicate. We can talk about being customer service oriented, we can talk about professionalism, and we can talk about experience. But all of that falls to the side if we fail to communicate.

The bottom line is that we are in the business to create long lasting relationships. We want to attract and retain clients who, after experiencing the RIVERGUY RENTALS way of doing business, will be excited to refer their friend sand family. With RIVERGUY RENTALS, you will always be treated as a client and not a number.

We invite you to read the information in this package. We believe it will give you a good idea of our business philosophy, our guarantees, our marketing strategy, and our full compliment of management related services. When you're ready to experience the RIVERGUY RENTALS way of business, give us a call.
